

PRESS RELEASE

5th July 2024

The pulse of the jewelry industry will beat in Istanbul again

Online visitor registration for 56. IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show is now open

Free online visitor registration has started for the second international gathering of the jewelry industry in Istanbul. IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show, which will be held on October 02-05 with the participation of more than 1,000 brands, is expected to be visited by more than 26,000 local and international industry professionals.

Many product groups including gold, jewelry, diamonds, colored stones, precious and semi-precious stones, pearls, silver, silver jewelry and silver household goods, gold mounting, refinery, watch, mold, display & packaging, machinery-equipment and sub-industry, safe, software, logistics and lighting will be exhibited at IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show, one of the most important gatherings of the international jewelry industry.

IJS events and projects will inspire industry professionals

IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show will also feature events and projects that will shape the future of the international jewelry industry. The trend report that is exclusively prepared for IJS by WGSN, the world's number one trend forecasting company, will be presented during the show and inspire the 2025 collections of jewelry manufacturers. The October edition of IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show will also host the “Art for Jewellery: Inspiration Hub” event, that is organized in partnership with the Jewellery Exporters' Association and offers valuable contributions to art and artists in the field of jewelry. At the Designer Club special section, jewelry designers and craftsmen will exhibit unique designs and jewelry that they produce by having the chance to introduce their collections to the members of the jewelry sector.

Industry professionals who want to follow the international meeting of IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show in October can register online for free via the link: <https://bit.ly/IJSvisitorreg>

IJS Istanbul Jewelry Show is a B2B show. The show is open to jewelry trade buyers only, closed to the public.
