UBM Rotaforte Founding Partner Şermin Cengiz: "Turkey is now among the top countries of the global jewelry industry"

UBM Rotaforte Founding Partner Şermin Cengiz: "We've been organizing Istanbul Jewelry Show for the last 34 years and with the great support of the sector, today we've been able to turn it into one of world's leading exhibitions with over 1250 exhibitors and brands. We are extremely happy and proud to be organizing for the 48th time, this exhibition which has become the number one priority of business agenda and a major meeting point for all professionals of the sector. As UBM Rotaforte, we've been pioneering the development of the sector since the first day of Istanbul Jewelry Show. In line with this, we aim to create new business opportunities by bringing together all stakeholders of the industry. Not only our exhibitors turned into sought after and highly demanded brands but also "Made in Turkey" branded jewelry products became the number one choice of customers especially in the Middle East, Europe, Arabic Peninsula, Russia and CIS Countries. Parallel to this development on the part of the players of the sector, Istanbul Jewelry Show as well managed to increase its contribution to the sector every year. With the new business meetings to be held and agreements to be signed as part of the exhibition, sponsored by Turk Ekonomi Bankası, we aim to help realize around 80% of Turkish Jewelry Exports."
