

PRESS RELEASE

15.03.2024

Over 1,500 brands are exhibiting in the 55th Istanbul Jewelry Show.

Istanbul Jewelry Show Opens the Doors of Exports

Türkiye is among the world's five largest markets in terms of gold jewelry market size, along with India, China, the USA and Russia, and ranks third in production after India and Italy. The Turkish Jewelry Sector, which closed 2023 with an export volume of 7 billion 640 million 637 thousand dollars, realizes 80 percent of its international sales at the Istanbul Jewelry Show (IJS), which is held twice a year. Organized by Informa Markets and sponsored by Elmas Kule, the fair, which is preparing to open its doors for the 55th time, will offer unique opportunities to the international jewelry sector by being held in Istanbul, which unites not only continents but also thousands of years of ancient cultures and is positioned as one of the most important trade links of the world supply chain. The first meeting of 2024 will take place on April 17 - 20 at the Istanbul Expo Center.

Türkiye's top export destinations at Istanbul Jewelry Show

Professionals of the jewelry world from Eastern Europe to the Near East, from Russia to North Africa, from CIS Countries to the Middle East will meet at the Istanbul Expo Center for the 55th time. While the Turkish Jewelry Sector closed 2023 with an export figure of over 7.5 billion dollars, it made the most international sales to the United Arab Emirates, USA, Switzerland, Hong Kong, Iraq, Mexico, Kyrgyzstan, Germany, and Libya. In 2023, the highest number of international visitors to the Istanbul Jewelry Show (IJS), which was held in March and October, came from the USA, United Arab Emirates, Algeria, India, Iraq, Iran, Lebanon, Egypt, Russia, and Saudi Arabia. Istanbul Jewelry Show (IJS) continues to bring together professionals from target markets as well as the countries to which the Turkish Jewelry Sector exports the most, with participating brands for direct trade. The fair, which will be held in April for the first time this year and will last for four days from Wednesday to Saturday, is expected to attract more than 33,500 visitors from over 140 countries.

Since 1986, the 55th edition of the Istanbul Jewelry Show (IJS), which brings together the most important companies, brands and buyers of the jewelry industry, will be held on April 17 - 20 and will feature product groups such as gold, jewelry, diamonds, colored stones, precious and semi-precious stones, pearls, silver, silver jewelry and silver household goods, gold montage, refinery, watches, molds, display and packaging, machinery-equipment and sub-industry, safes, software, logistics and lighting. Industry professionals who want to get detailed information about the fair, whose online visitor registrations are ongoing, can visit www.istanbuljewelryshow.com

Istanbul Jewelry Show is a trade fair for jewelry industry professionals only and is not open to the public.
